TD's Decision

The two yellow cards were reviewed, which were both obtained for physical play violation, 10-minute and 5-minute respectively. ZAVALA Alexis did acknowledge he understood that his actions were reckless and dangerous on both occasions. He explained that on the first occasion, the Canadian player made a sudden stop which he did not anticipate causing him to come into contact. In the second incident, he admitted that it was not intentional. He further accepted the breaches of the physical play violations.

The disciplinary history of the team member: none

ZAVALA Alexis accepts the breaches of the Code of Conduct. His attitude during the hearing was remorseful.

Any penalty already incurred: This player served a total of 15 minutes of suspension.

A one match suspension will be imposed at the 2024 Junior Pan American Championship, Men on Wednesday 10 July, 2024 in their cross over match with the report submitted to FIH and PAHF.
